

Artist: Kelly Rose Pfug-Black

About the artist: "Kelly is a singer, artist, and grassroots anti-poverty activist from Guelph. She was arrested over the G20 weekend on conspiracy charges has since been released on strict house arrest bail conditions. There is currently a Publication Ban on the details of all the cases" (Guelph ABC).

This postcard is part of a series to raise funds for the G8 and G20 defendants.

When the hierarchy of oppression is disrupted, and those affected by state oppression stand up to resist, it is called "violence", while the everyday violence carried out by the state to marginalized populations is considered the norm. Educate yourself. Disrupt the cycle of violence. Support the G20 Defendants.
